MAGISTRATES' BILL VETOED.
IT PROVIDED FOR SIX MORE CITY MAGISTRATES.

The Governor Doesn't Believe Such an Increase Can Be Justified—He Also Vetoed the Bill Increasing Number of Coroners' Physicians in Brooklyn.

ALBANY, June 8.—Gov. Hughes has vetoed Senator Hasenflug's bill providing for additional City Magistrates and for additional police clerks, assistant clerks, stenographers and interpreters for the City Magistrates' courts in the second division of the city of New York. His veto message follows:

This bill provides for six additional City Magistrates in the Second division of the city of New York, four to be appointed from the Borough of Brooklyn and two from the City Borough of Queens. It also provides for the appointment in the Second division of six additional police clerks, four additional stenographers and four additional interpreters. It prescribes that the Magistrates' courts shall be open from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. and that in specified districts there shall be morning and afternoon sessions during which a City Magistrate shall be in attendance.

While it is important to increase the efficiency of the Magistrates' courts, and to this end it may be desirable to make specific provision for the number and duration of sessions, the increase of the number of Magistrates and clerks proposed by this bill in my judgment is unwarranted.

Whatever may be said of the desirability of additional Magistrates in the Borough of Queens, there is no sufficient reason for an increase of four Magistrates in the Borough of Brooklyn. Until very recently there were eight Magistrates in the latter borough. The Charter amendment of 1901 provided for ten Magistrates. The Court of Appeals held the provision for their election to be unconstitutional. The borough remained with eight Magistrates until the fall of 1906, when two additional Magistrates were appointed.

Despite this recent increase in the actual force under existing law it is now proposed to raise the number to fourteen.

I do not believe that such an increase can be justified or that there is any sufficient reason to claim that it is needed in order to put the Magistrates' courts of Brooklyn upon a proper basis of efficiency. There is no such exigency as would warrant me in giving approval to this bill.

Gov. Hughes also vetoed two other New York city bills. In disapproving Assemblyman Weber's bill increasing the number of Coroners' physicians in Brooklyn the Governor says: "If the law is to be amended at all it should provide that the number of Coroners' physicians within the Greater New York should be fixed by the local authorities and not by the Legislature."

These reasons are given by the Governor for vetoing Senator Hart's bill providing for more Assistant District Attorneys in Queens and Richmond counties.

So far as Richmond county is concerned the object of the present bill seems to be to give the District Attorney the power to appoint irrespective of the authorization of the local authorities. The powers of the Board of Supervisors to authorize the appointment of an assistant under the county law have been devolved, pursuant to the Constitution and the Greater New York Charter, upon the Board of Aldermen. The Charter also provides that the salaries of officers of the counties included within the city of New York, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be fixed by the Board of Aldermen upon the recommendation of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. There seems to be no simple provision in the present law for the appointment of an Assistant District Attorney in Richmond county if, in the judgment of the local authorities, such appointment is needed. Apart from this there is no such evidence of this necessity as would warrant me in approving this bill.

The present bill also provides that the District Attorney of Queens county may appoint two assistants and two deputy assistants. I have come to the conclusion that it is not sound policy to provide for such matters by additional special provisions in the county law making the consent of the local authorities unnecessary. The preferable course would be to amend the general provision of section 202 of the county law so as to provide for the appointment of additional assistants if the local authorities approve.

ASSEMBLYMAN HART RECAPS.
He Now Favors Speaker Wadsworth's Apportionment Plan.

UTICA, June 8.—Assemblyman Merwin K. Hart of this city was one of the few Republican members of the lower house to vote against the Wadsworth reapportionment plan when it was considered at the caucus of Republican Assemblymen a few days ago. Mr. Hart has evidently seen a light, for he is out to-day with a statement to the effect that he is now convinced that the Speaker's plan for rearranging the Senate districts is a proper one and that he will stand by it to the end.

Bills Signed by Gov. Hughes.
ALBANY, June 8.—Gov. Hughes to-day signed the following bills:

Senator Sullivan's, authorizing the New York City Board of Estimate and Apportionment, in its discretion, to direct that the cost of opening or extending city streets to be used as an approach to bridges connecting the various boroughs of the city shall be borne by the city.

Mr. Francis's, providing for pensions for dependent parents of members of the New York City Police Force.

Mr. Haines's, establishing a pension fund for the paid fire department of Yonkers.

Also authorizing the Yonkers Common Council to issue $30,000 in bonds for the establishment of sewage disposal plants in the Seventh ward.

Also abolishing the Park Commission of Yonkers on January 1, 1908.

Mr. Prentice's, authorizing the issue of corporate stock of the city of New York to provide means for the acquisition by the Commissioners of Docks, with the approval of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, of ferries operated between any of the boroughs of the city.

Mr. Surpless's, providing that there be 500 instead of 200 trial jurors on lists furnished the clerk of Municipal Court in each district of New York city.

Lutheran Clergy Confronted Gov. Hughes on His Work.

ALBANY, June 8.—Gov. Hughes received a large delegation of ministers to-day and was congratulated on "this courageous and determined stand for righteous government" in a resolution adopted by the State Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium, which is in session in Albany. The resolution assures him of the hearty support of the organization in "all his efforts for right law and their faithful enforcement and our prayers for grace in the discharge of the duties of his high and responsible executive office."

The resolution was presented by a committee of the ministerium. The larger part of the clergymen who called were delegates representing the State synod of the Reformed Church, which has been in session here for several days.

To Set Off Twenty Pockets of Dynamite.
AMSTERDAM, N. Y., June 8.—Twenty pockets of dynamite will be set off at the Flint Hill stone quarry next week. The whole side and top of Flint Hill are to be blown off. Flint Hill is about one and a half miles west of Pattersonville, and on the side of the hill is supposed to be an old Indian burying ground. The amount of dynamite to be used would be sufficient to blow up this city.

RECOUNT BILL VETO RECEIVED.
Mr. Oliver Objects to Printing in the Journal Mr. Shearn's Communication.

ALBANY, June 8.—The recount bill, with President McGowan's veto, was received in the Assembly to-day. It was brought here by a special messenger. It will be passed over the veto Monday night. A communication was received in the Assembly from Clarence J. Shearn, W. R.
Hearse's counsel. His receipt was noted on the Journal. Assemblyman James Rogers moved that the communication be spread on the Journal.

"No you don't!" shouted Paradise Park Jimmy Oliver.
"But we did that with Mayor McClellan's communication," protested Mr. Rogers.
"Oh, that's different," replied Mr. Oliver.
"Mr. McClellan is the Mayor of a 4,500,000-population city. The recount shows he is," said Mr. Rogers.
"You bet he's Mayor and the recount will show he is the Mayor, although I'm going to vote to pass the bill over the veto," said Oliver.
